CONTRIBUTORS

MATTHEW BAIGELL is Associate Professor of Art History at Ohio State University, and he specialises in modern European and American art. He has published articles on contemporary painting as well as on the art of the Great Depression period, and is at present writing a book on the latter subject.

PETER WILLIAMS is the founder editor of Dance and Dancers magazine. He began with the intention of becoming a stage designer and in the early 'thirties studied at the Central School of Art and Design with Jeanetta Cochrane. After this he moved to the world of Haute Couture and, in 1946, became head designer for Jantzen. He later returned to the theatre and designed for the Metropolitan Ballet and the Sadler's Wells Theatre Ballet, as well as becoming assistant editor on the magazine, Ballet. In 1950 he founded Dance and Dancers. He serves on the advisory panel of the British Council and the Opera and Ballet Enquiry of the Arts Council.
