

Instituto de arte
contemporânea

A minimalist sculpture composed of several white, curved blocks. One block is a tall, rounded rectangular shape. Another is a shorter, wider block with a rounded top, partially overlapping the first. A third block is a low, wide rectangular base. The blocks are set against a light brown, textured background. The lighting creates soft shadows, emphasizing the three-dimensional form.