

Instituto de arte contemporânea

The image shows a dark blue rectangular artwork mounted on a light-colored wall. From the surface of the artwork, several vertical, elongated, teardrop-shaped elements protrude. Each element is divided vertically into a red half and a white half. The elements are arranged in a slightly staggered, horizontal row. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.