

There are possibly two alternatives regarding the artist's decoration of the Assembly Hall.

One of them is to decorate one of the walls to the left or right (when entering the room).

The other alternative is to make an artistic glass wall at the bottom of the Hall, where one could imagine something in transparent glass and solid divisions (reliefs).