Dear M. Esmeraldo:

In response to your letter of January the 29th, and in accordance with your invoice, I am enclosing a check in the amount of $300.00 in full payment of the two items shown on your invoice. I really feel very guilty about the fact that we have not straightened out sooner.

Frankly, at the moment I don't know what I am going to do with the pieces except simply put them into my collection. As you know, I like your work very much. We do not, at the moment, intend to purchase additional pieces, and it is for this reason that I suggested that if you prefer to take them back, I would of course be glad to comply.

In either case, I am sorry that it has been so long since I have been in Paris, and I will certainly let you know as soon as we know when we will be there next. Mrs. Lipschultz and I will be delighted to see you, and in the meantime she joins me in extending our very sincere personal regards to you and your wife.

Very truly yours,

M. A. Lipschultz
