Mr. Alfredo Soldani,
Marmi, Scultura E Architettura,
36, via Poggioletto,
Massa,
Carrara,
Italy.

Dear Mr. Soldani,

Mr. Sergio de Camargo told you over the telephone, when he rang you before leaving for Brazil, that the large column, opus 399 had been damaged in transport.

He also asked you how much it would cost to have another column, exactly the same, made by you.

You informed him that the price would be Lit.720,000,--, as declared on the shipping papers of November 1972.

We have informed our insurance brokers of the replacement cost and they are agreeable to having a new one made.

Could you confirm to us that the price is going to be as quoted by you to Mr. Camargo and that you have all the drawings to execute the sculpture which will be identical to the damaged one.

Yours sincerely,

Peter Gimpel.
