Dear Mr. Camargo:

I have discussed your proposal with our client, Mr. José Luiz Miranda.

Your cost would be acceptable. However, Mr. Miranda thinks that the transportation cost, $4,000.00 is completely out of proportion. Shipping is usually rather inexpensive and I do not understand how Agence Delamare arrived at their figure. Please obtain estimates from other agencies, for instance:

LEO DE LAVERNE
Agence Maritime
69 Rue Laugier
Paris 17, France

They transport all the stained glass for Jean Barillet in crates much heavier than yours will be.

If we can arrive at a total cost of not over $12,000.00, I think we will be able to go ahead.

Please let me know the results of your negotiations as soon as possible.

Best regards,

Paul Damaz
