

instituto de arte contemporânea

The image shows a square artwork with a black border. Inside the square, there are three circles. One is a large red circle on the left side. Another is a large white circle on the right side. The third is a smaller black circle located in the upper right quadrant of the square. The background of the square is a light, neutral color. The text 'instituto de arte contemporânea' is visible in the background, oriented diagonally.