

A photograph of a modern art gallery. The floor is dark and polished, reflecting the light. In the foreground, there are two large, irregular, light-colored objects on the floor. A white grid structure, possibly a sculpture or a display case, is in the middle ground. In the background, several people are standing near a railing, looking at the art. The text "instituto de arte contemporânea" is overlaid on the image in a light gray font, running diagonally from the top left to the bottom right.
