Dear M. Esmeraldo:

I have your letter of September 19th and was, of course, delighted to hear from you. I am sorry it has been so long since we have seen you. It is unusual for me not to have been back to Paris for such a long spell. I hope we will get there soon and I will certainly advise you so that we can get together.

I am almost certain that I will have to be in London in the next month or two and if so, will try to arrange to get into Paris, at which time I would like to see what you have and what you offer. It will indeed be a pleasure to see you.

Mrs. Lipschultz joins me in extending our very kindest personal regards.

M. A. Lipschultz
