

The background of the image is an abstract composition of various brushstrokes in shades of green, teal, and blue. The strokes are layered and textured, creating a sense of depth and movement. The colors range from light, airy greens to darker, more saturated blues and teals. The overall effect is organic and artistic, typical of a contemporary art installation or a creative branding element.

instituto de arte contemporânea