

“LES CINQ SAISONS”

LES OMBRES

LES

FESTIVAL D'AUTOMNE A PARIS

A. R. C. 2

MUSÉE D'ART MODERNE DE LA VILLE DE PARIS

1 - 2 - 3. 10. 1975

MANUEL ZIMBRO

LOURDES CASTRO

PHOTOGRAPHY

Menez garçons, venez fillettes,
Voir momus à la silhouette voir
Oui, belle humeur en habit noir.
La tandis que ma selle n'est que l'ombre
Et que mon acteur n'est que Gaite
Puisse, la réalité." 1772

LOURDES CASTRO

THEATRE
D'OMBRES
D'URDES

All day long like a fishwoman
she runs about invisible streets paths byways
and with the net of her hands
she collects the startled fish or shadows shadows is more important than the act, the word more significant than the voice that spoke it. She seizes reduces the fever desires anguish of a lonely embrace into the unity of a dazzled shadow on the wall
For ever will her man and woman sit at tables smoke cigarettes regard discs - - beautiful gestures of simplicity that cannot depart death of motion time space calmness fulness release of absence
She a master of the marvelous the marvelled pattern
All day long like a fishwoman
she runs about invisible streets paths byways
and with the net of her hands
she collects the startled fish

3/11/67
WADE STEVENSON