Camargo: Relief elements divers

"In less than a year of its existence, SIGNALS LONDON has become the London showcase of the international avant-garde, counting among its artists the most exciting and the most profound pioneers of kinetic art, such as TAKIS, SOTO, MEDALLA, CAMARGO, LYGIA CLARK, many of whom will doubtless be hailed as masters tomorrow. Its controversial news bulletin, also entitled SIGNALS, will provide minelodes of documentary information for art historians of the future. When you are next in London, I strongly recommend that you should not, on any account, miss the chance of visiting SIGNALS' LONDON new showrooms at 39 Wigmore street, for there you will find the most advanced developments in today's art."
