

instituto de arte contemporanea

The image displays two vertical panels of color swatches. The left panel consists of four distinct color blocks: a light blue top section, a yellow middle section, a light purple bottom section, and a dark blue bottom-most section. The right panel consists of five distinct color blocks: a dark blue top section, a light purple section, a dark green section, a light purple section, and a light blue bottom-most section. A diagonal watermark reading 'instituto de arte contemporanea' is overlaid across both panels.