

instituto de arte contemporânea

The background features a minimalist abstract geometric drawing composed of black lines on a light beige surface. A central point at the bottom left emits several thin lines that fan out towards the top right. One prominent line extends diagonally upwards and to the left. Another line originates from the same central point and extends vertically upwards. The overall aesthetic is clean and modern.

instituto de arte contemporânea

Valdemar Cordeiro