Dear Mr. Camargo,

Your sculpture is safely placed where it shall be in the hall of the County City Hall, Trondheim. Of course there has been a battle relating to modern art in the newspapers in Trondheim. The county governor has been involved, I, myself, have been involved, and everybody has done whatever possible to make your name famous and spoken of in said city.

You can imagine that we could not get your modern sculpture to the city of Trondheim without stirring the local art-understanders. Happily enough, everything runs smoothly, and the county governor himself has been the warmest defender of your wonderful piece of art. He has his daily "quiet moment" together with your sculpture upon his arrival in the County Hall every morning.

As you will see from enclosed copy of my letter to Union de Banques Suisses in Montreux, I have asked the bank to transfer to your account in Geneva

s. frs. 10.820,- (corresponding n. kr. 20.000,-)

which amount was already transferred to Switzerland in May and has been on a special account in Montreux awaiting the arrival of your sculpture.

Furthermore I have instructed the executive secretary of the County Hall in Trondheim to transfer to your account in Geneva, n. kr. 10.000,-. Altogether you will then have received n. kr. 60.000,- according to our agreement.

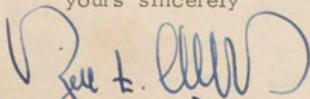

Please do me the favour of sending me your confirmation of having received n. kr. 20.000,- as payment of a part of your fee. When you receive the last n. kr. 10.000,-, please also confirm receipt of same.

When so is done, you have altogether confirmed having received n. kr.
60.000,-.

Looking forward to meeting you next time in Paris, I remain

Oslo, 6th August 1973

yours sincerely
