Dear Sr. Serpa:

I understood that long ago you sent some paintings to us with a Mr. Belchior. I was not able to locate Mr. Belchior in New York and the Guggenheim never received your works. I was hoping that they had actually been sent to Caracas but your paintings were not there for the exhibition two months ago.

If you can help, I would feel relieved to know where these works are or how you would suggest pursuing them.

I am sorry for the delay in writing to you but I kept thinking they would turn up.

Sincerely yours,

Linda Konheim
